NEW DOCKET

Largest In History

Of Summit County Court of Common Pleas.

The docket of the January term, Common Pleas court, will be the largest in the county's history.

It should be a good argument for those who favor legislation which will give this sub-division another judge.

During the last term Judge Kohler has referred many divorce cases to young attorneys. In this way an extra large number of actions have been heard. Notwithstanding this there will be over 650 cases on the new docket. This is an increase of over 60 as compared with the docket for the September term, which was the largest up to that time.

Another Reply.

Matherson, notifying them that the last named parties, have in consideration of $12,000, assigned all their right, title and dower, in the real and personal estate of Joy H. Pendleton to him.

Will Not Contest.

Mrs. Lizzie E. Bechtel of Columbus has filed a petition for a divorce from her husband, Cary E. Bechtel, of this city. She alleges that he is guilty of extreme cruelty, claiming that he has abused her from the day of their marriage. Bechtel is employed at Stuart's coal office on Barges st. He says he will not contest the case.

Money Actions.

George M. Tuttle, trustee, has filed an action in Common Pleas court against John Stoolmiller et al. for $2,000 and the foreclosure of a mortgage.

'Recollect'

Before you buy "stop and think." It will be to your advantage. The place to buy your goods the cheapest is where the expense is smallest.

DO

YOU KNOW

That I can buy goods as cheap as any house in the country?

DO

YOU KNOW

That in the larger stores where rent is $150 a month to $1,000 and clerk hire exceeds $200 a week that you are the one, if you trade there, that pays these enormous expenses?

I am satisfied with small profits because my expenses are small.
